The American Thread team will have a busy season Saturday when they play the Tataville team at Tataville. When these two teams met earlier in the season the local team managed to get away with the big end of the score, but Tataville has been hitting a better pace during the past few weeks and intends to add a victory over the American Thread to those already recorded. Last Saturday the Tataville nine took the Roadhouse to task and defeated them 7 to 3 and with the same lineup they expect to duplicate the deed the coming Saturday. Manager "Jack" McQuillan will send Gill after the boys down below and "Joe" Hamel will do the signat. Leo Normandin will take third for the American Thread and the team will be expected to take the trip to an ancient rival.

Sunday the Singer team of Bridgeport is to play at Recreation park and from all accounts this team will be one of the toughest the locals have met this season, and they will have to go the limit if they expect a victory. Ooney who has pitched in this city twice previously will be on the rubber and McGinnis will hold the old position behind the bat. "Pete" Wilson an ex-leaguer will probably do the hurling for the Singer team and first base will be covered by "Jack" McCarthy former C. C. captain.

Willimantic mills have felt the slackening in business as is evidenced by the closing down of the Quinick-Windham and Windham Silk companies during the past few weeks. The winding department of the American Thread company is now running on a four day a week schedule.

A New London newspaper tells a story about Morris Streeter, of this city, who sells chickens and in his hate to sell a particular lot of chickens to the Whaling City with his Republic truck for the trip. While in that city he was stopped and it was learned he had no registration card and was selling under false colors. In court Streeter admitted his guilt for both offenses but stated he only used what he had to deliver the chickens that day. New London allowed him to dispose of the chickens and then split profits with him by relieving him of $13 in cash.

Automobile sales passing through this city Thursday asked where they could purchase various articles, only to be told that the town was closed up for the day as it was Clerk's Day and the clerk, that is the majority of them, with their employees were at Cozer Beach East Haven, wading through a shore dinner. Some 110 local business men left at 8 o'clock Thursday by automobile to beach and made a day of it, returning home late in the evening. They didn't see Babe Ruth hit a home run, that's true, but they sure did have a good time. The Yankees were unable to play an exhibition game at New Haven Thursday owing to a change in schedule between the Yanks and the Indians, following the death of Ray Chapman, the Cleveland shortstop Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Grace Potter and son Byron have returned to their home here after two weeks' trip to Manchester-by-the-Sea, Singing Beach and other beaches, along Massachusetts north shore. A blizzard of 27 Park street left Thursday for Webster, Mass., to attend a day of the insurance company of which he is an agent.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harriet E. Toney were held Thursday afternoon at four o'clock from the A. M. E. Zion church on Spring street, Rev. D. R. Overton, the pastor, conducting the services. The body will be taken to New Bedford for burial in Oak Grove cemetery. Undertaker Jay M. Shepard was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah E. Hooker were held Thursday afternoon at two o'clock from her home, No. 330 Prospect street. Rev. Walter F. Borden, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church officiating. The bearers were Frank Alpaugh, Chauncey, Frank and Harold Curtis. Burial was in Willimantic cemetery where a committal service was held by Rev. Mr. Borchert. The arrangements were by Jay M. Shepard.

Willimantic Camp Ground
The fourth morning of camp meeting and institute week opened Thursday with fair weather. The morning watch brought out a good number of campers at 8:15. The leader was Rev. Oscar J. Aldrich of Stafford Springs. He led a brief praise meeting and then the subject of the day, "The Power of Christ," was his topic, based upon Matt. 28:18-20. Jesus power and personality and companionship made the disciples rejoice. Then they had the joy of going out to service, to tell of Christ's power to save men of all nations from the power of sin.

The institute classes were held as usual during the forenoon.
Rev. E. J. Curry, in the mission study hour, 8:30 to 9:40, under the general head of the "Church and Community" spoke upon the special theme of "Homes and Housing" showing the need and efforts made in cities, towns and rural communities for better tenements, more sanitary and up-to-date in modern hygiene. Instruction is given ignorant moth in good housekeeping and proper care of their offspring.

Rev. Walter F. Whiting of Biddeford, Me., spoke in the next period on the subject of Stewardship. This refers not only to money but to the offering of our lives for Christ.
Rev. Joseph Cooper's Bible Study hour in the auditorium under the trees was interesting.
The sun had come out, yet the temperature was not oppressive, and a good gathering listened to a thoughtful discourse on Law, Liberty and Justice, one of the subjects of the social survey of the community and sets in motion works of mercy and friendliness.

The children's meeting was held at one o'clock in the New London House, with Miss Dorothy Wheeler leader. A violin solo was given by Miss Roberta Bilgord of New London.

The 3 p. m. preaching service was held in the auditorium, commencing with the usual group of songs. The Scripture was read by Rev. Sylvester P. Osmun, of Attawaugan, and prayer was offered by Rev. C. H. Taylor of Willimantic.

Rev. W. H. Bath announced a baseball game after the service this Friday afternoon and a campfire after the evening service.

Rev. F. D. Taylor, of Waterbury, Mass., gave the third in his series of addresses on Some Facts of Christian Experience. His text was Romans 8:37, "We are more than conquerors through Christ who loved us," and his theme was the "Fact of Victory."

Some may be less than conquerors like Germany and Austria, or like the slacker and deserter. There may be some barefaced conquerors, like France, or the man merely overcoming an appetite. But others, like the United States are more than conquerors; or like those who by the indwelling Christ find a victory which triumphs in it. We can't conquer self and fear and hate apart from the Holy Spirit dwelling within. Several hands were raised for prayer at the close.

At four o'clock quite a crowd went to the athletic field, where baseball and other games furnished a good outing for the leaguers.

The evening preacher was Rev. Lyman G. Horton of Woonsocket, R. I. The annual conference postponed from Wednesday night on account of the dampness followed.

At the twilight service Wednesday evening, Rev. J. M. Gage told of being willing to do humble work. A man he knew once in Massachusetts had always worked wood but was persuaded to change his occupation. In a short time a friend observed him going by again with saw horse and saw, and said to him, "Hello, Joe, I thought you'd changed your business." "No, I'd rather saw wood than work in an office," he replied.

At the Wednesday evening service during the preliminary meeting held in the tabernacle at 7:15 chorister Wheeler called upon the two daughters of a former president, sister of the district, Rev. Henry D. Robinson, to sing as a duet the verses of "In the Garden," the audience joining in the chorus. The two singers were Mrs. Lillian Jackson, of Attawaugan and Mrs. William W. Carter of Rutherford, N. J.

The Scripture was read by Rev. J. B. Aldrich of Jewett City and prayer was offered by Rev. A. Ridgeway, of Manchester.

The preacher of the evening was Rev. C. C. Tibbitts, of Unadilla, Matt. 5:48. "To therefore shall be perfect as your Father in Heaven is perfect. The subject is the social gospel is necessary to salvation.

These words refer not so much to the future as to the living present. The full stature of Christian manhood is meant. Church membership can never take the place of Christian character. We are to be like Jesus. Sin fetters and

A Simple Way To Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, first get about four ounces of plain common liquid acetone from any drug store (this is all you will need). Apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sale of Forest Street Cottage

Real Estate Broker John A. Morgan, acting for Sophia Miller, has sold the six-room cottage, No. 1 Forest street, to Martin D. Austin. The purchase was made as an investment.

Strand
The Strand will have a big gala opening on Thursday, August 19. The Strand has been remodeled and repainted and set up-to-date, cooling system installed. Mr. Davidson has secured the services of Mr. Soutor, for many years well known as one of the best leaders of an orchestra.

Mr. Soutor has not only promised to play at the Strand but will furnish other first class musicians who are well capable of giving the patrons of the Strand a rare treat in music. The Strand's prices will be, Matinee 25 cents, Evening 35 and 40 cents. These prices include war tax. The Strand's program for Thursday is as follows: The Maxwell Quintet will be seen in a singing, talking and dancing sketch entitled "A Night at the Club." Bernard and Perla are next in a class singing and comedy different than the rest. The Musical Vaudeville will furnish the penultimate with a variety musical comedy of the better sort. Robert Warwick will be shown in a six-reel picture entitled "His Family Honor." An up-to-date select news will complete this but all star show at the Strand. Follow the crowd to the Strand.

Breed Theatre
For its feature attraction today and Saturday the Breed Theatre will present Will Rogers in his latest picture "Cand—The Cowpuncher." This is a picture which shows him in a new range of the west. Will Rogers possesses a thoroughly imaginative imagination, a sense of humor which was never better exploited than in his impersonation of honest Al Jolson in this picture. He is so frankly natural, with his homely ways, and a grin and odd gestures that you will warm up to him at once. His cutting figure eight with his skilfully wielded lariat on horseback, making love in his beautiful dancing, and his wit in the denouement of a Ford car are amusing situations in this rattling good comedy drama. As an added attraction Herbert Russell will be seen in "The Five Dollar Piece" a true detective story by William J. Flynn. America's greatest detective. Other pictures on the bill include a Sunshine comedy titled "Mary's Lobster" and the Pathé News.

True.
Miss Jennie Yonans of Norwich came to the meeting and is staying at Craig-Reed with Mrs. A. D. Lewis.

Mrs. Thomas Elliott of Kingston is at her cottage for the season.

Mrs. Emma Worthington of East Norwich is spending a few days at Pease cottage on Jones avenue.

At the Lincoln house in the caretaker, Mrs. A. J. Phillips, Miss Juliette Richmond of Groton and the two daughters of Mrs. C. H. Bradley.

The baseball game Thursday afternoon between the boys nine and the girls' nine resulted in a victory for the girls, 15 to 8, although the boys gave the former an advantage by playing left handed. It is further reported that a snake in the grass was knocked out, along with numerous grasshoppers.

Rev. L. G. Horton of Woonsocket came from his summer home in Niantic Thursday afternoon for a day's stay here.

STAFFORD SPRINGS
Earl B. Fenwick, of Dorchester, Mass., has secured as submaster of Stafford High school for the coming term. He will succeed Otis R. Garland, who becomes principal of Franconia Academy, in New Hampshire. Mr. Fenwick is a graduate of Bates college, class of 1915, and has had two years' experience as a teacher. He taught in a private school in New York one year and spent another year in the Huntington Institute, Boston.

Mr. Fenwick is an accomplished singer and was director of the glee club while in college, also a member of the track team. He sang in several Boston churches while in that city. Last Tuesday evening he married Miss Helen Clark of Dorchester.

The Stafford Worsted Mill which has been shut down for three weeks, reopened in two Thursday morning and will commence work in all departments next week.

Mrs. Mabel Lawrence has resumed as teacher of the Stafford Street school. To date, Superintendent Amos R. Handy has been unable to secure a teacher for this school.

JEWETT CITY
Miss Rosina Allen is entertaining Miss Elizabeth Selin, Marian Bliven and Geraldine Lang of Norwich. The young ladies have returned after two weeks' stay at camp at Gardner Lake.

Mrs. and Mr. J. J. Ayers of Norwich, Mrs. Geo. Havens and Carlton Havens are away for a week on an automobile trip to the White Mountains and Canada.

Miss Elizabeth Tibbitts of East Norwich is spending the week with her cousin, Miss Alice Smith.
